

DR. RENE SARAN

CURRICULUM VITAE

Education

Diploma in Economics and Political Science, Oxford Univ., 1950

BA Honours in Politics and Modern History (Upper Second), Manchester University, 1953

PhD in Social Administration (Education Policy), London University, 1968

Work

Secretarial and editorial work in industry, commerce and for voluntary societies 1938-1948;

Tutor in Adult Education at Hillcroft College, Surbiton, Surrey, 1953-63;

Editorial Assistant, Socialist Commentary (monthly journal), 1958-63;

Part-time Tutor in Dept of Extra-Mural Studies, London Univ., 1950s;

Part-time Lecturer, Brunel College of Advanced Technology, 1963-1965;

Senior Lecturer, then Principal Lecturer, City of London College (later City of London Polytechnic) 1968-1986;

Hon. Visiting Fellow, then Visiting Lecturer, Institute of Education, University of London, 1986-2000 (approx);

Part-time Lecturer, London School of Economics, University of London (1988-89)

Voluntary Work

School Governor, Vice-Chair, then Chair of Governors, Kingsgate Primary School and Hampstead Comprehensive School, Camden, London (approx 30 years from early 1970s);

Trustee, Chair and now Secretary, Society for the Furtherance of the Critical Philosophy (SFCP), from 1970s;

Member of British Educational Leadership Management and Administration Society (BELMAS) (from 1970s); Council Member and Chair of BELMAS Research Committee (for 12 years), now Honorary Vice-President;

Member of German Philosophical Political Academy (PPA) and German Society of Socratic Facilitators (GSP) from 1990s

Awards

SSRC Research Grant for Burnham Salaries study (1979-1981);

Emeritus Fellowship, Leverhulme Foundation for study of Teachers' Conditions of Work under 1987 Act (1989-91);

Honorary Fellow, Commonwealth Council for Educational Administration (late 1990s);

BELMAS Distinguished Service Award 2005 (in recognition of "notable contribution both to BELMAS and to the profession of educational leadership, management and administration")