Saturday October 14th 2023 from 10.30am to 4.00pm

Dialogue facilitated by Dieter Krohn

Subject: What is my responsibility for the future?

Climate change, war, energy - all these factors influence our future and that of our children. Am I myself in a position to shape these factors? Perhaps. But don't others, more influential ones, have this responsibility? What about me?

Based on our experiences, we want to reflect on these questions together and find well-founded answers. The facilitator will make sure that we understand each other well and stay focused.

Outline of Programme

10.30 Coffee and registration

11.00 Socratic Dialogue

1-1.30 Lunch

1.30 Socratic Dialogue (continued)

4.00 Close

You are welcome to join us for dinner on the Saturday night at a nearby restaurant.

Sunday October 15th 2023 from 10.00am to 12 noon

You are invited to attend a discussion on the merits of using the shorter style Socratic dialogues and how SFCP can help and support the use of Socratic dialogues across the UK

There is no charge for this event, which includes lunch, tea and coffee on Day 1. SFCP will reimburse travel expenses within the UK at the cheapest public transport fare if required. For those attending both Day 1 and Day 2 and requiring accommodation, SFCP will reimburse you for one night's hotel accommodation up to £120 (receipts required). You should book the hotel yourself.

If the Lancaster Hall Hotel is full, we suggest <https://number63.co.uk/> which is close by and reasonably priced.

You are welcome to come the day before or stay after the dialogue day.

The organisers will be at the Lancaster Hall Hotel from Friday through to Sunday.

Please let us know as soon as possible if you would like to attend so we have an idea of numbers. We will respond with a booking form nearer the time requesting further details, including dietary requirements.
